Regards to the business status of our finance business subsidiary ~Achieved a YOY 234% major increase of contracts ~

We would like to inform all investors and shareholders about the business status of Group Lease PCL (GL), our Finance Business consolidated subsidiary, which is undertaking the Motorcycle Finance in South-east Asia.

In February 2013, monthly new contracts amounted to a total of 7,943 motorcycles (234% YOY), and GL is continuing to expand its business activities. GL also broke a new monthly highest contracts record of 8,206 contracts last month. GL has substantially achieved even more business expansion considering a 10% fewer business days compared to the previous month.

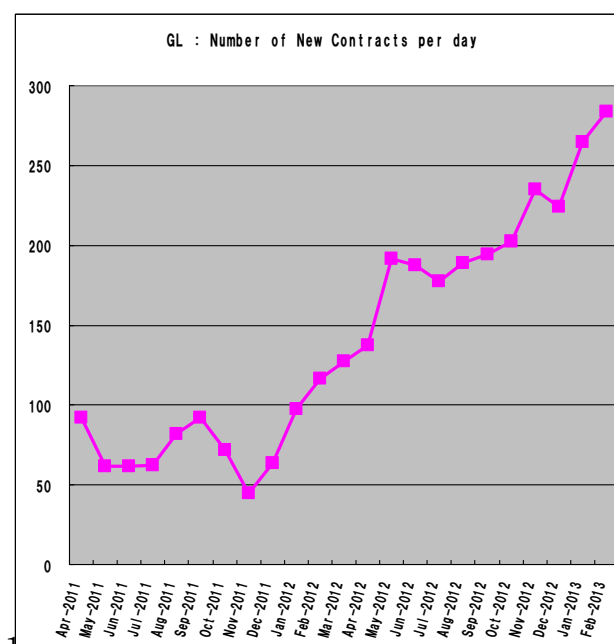

1. About GL and Thailand's economic conditions

Entering 2013, the Bank of Thailand has revised the estimated economy growth to 4.9%, sustaining Thailand's strong economy since the previous year. In particular to GL's motorcycle finance, due to the impact of increase in minimum wages nationwide, the demands for motorcycles in the rural and sub-urban areas have further increased, leading to the announcements of 20% estimated growth of AP HONDA Co., Ltd. which has the largest share in the motorcycle industry in Thailand. GL is very blessed by these strong business environments.

2. Sustained business expansion by high level numbers of new contracts

GL's number of new contracts has greatly increased, monthly total contracts in January 2013 amounted to breaking record of 8206, and a tending high level of 7,943 contracts in February.

Apart from the fewer business days, GL achieved a record breaking 284 contracts per day in February 2013. This represents the clear acceleration tendency of the expansion of the company.

GL have been expanded the business and increased its share in the market by increasing the number of their client dealers. GL aims to have a further expansion by sustaining competitive and aggressive business activities pioneering domestic markets in the sub-urban and rural areas of Thailand and also outside markets of Thailand.

Thank you.
