Group Lease stock price hit the highest since listed on SET

We would like to announce that stock price of Group Lease Public Company Limited (GL), our subsidiary company who operates digital finance business and listed in SET (Stock Exchange of Thailand) hit the highest at THB 51 on 17 November 2016 resulting the appreciation of recent announcement of its 3Q financial results.

GL accomplished the record-breaking highest profit in 8 consecutive quarters and aggressively expanded its business in regional countries such as Cambodia, Laos and Indonesia, and recently announced to move into Myanmar and Sri Lanka. In line with its excellent business results and strong business expansions, GL is gaining many attentions from worldwide institutional investors.

To boost our shareholder value, we consider the increase in equity as our primary role. We will give many supports as possible to GL for its better performance. Our current total shareholding stocks price is about JPY 82.7 billion (equivalent to THB 26.6 billion) and its unrealized gain is about JPY 75.8 billion (equivalent to THB 24.4 billion).

We would like to ask for continuous supports in the years to come as we and our group companies will put more efforts to expand businesses, profit and shareholder's equity.
